MOHAWK NATION OF GRAND RIVER

What the Register Does for You

Your line, your mark, your papers and your money: what the Nation's Register gives its people.

From your door to your papers in five steps; what you get; your papers on white; is it for you?

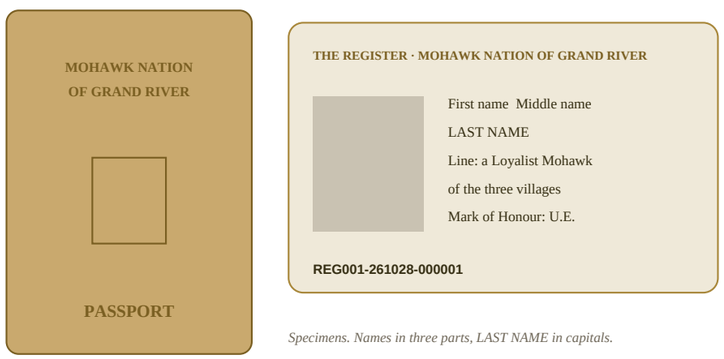

FROM YOUR DOOR TO YOUR PAPERS, IN FIVE STEPS

How to read it: follow the path left to right. You start at your own door; each numbered stop is a step; the papers wait at the end.

YOUR PAPERS, SHOWN ON WHITE

How to read it: specimens of the passport, tan, and the credential card, each carrying its Record Code in the Nation's three blocks.

Specimens. Names in three parts, LAST NAME in capitals.

WHAT THE REGISTER GIVES YOU

Your line
proved, and kept on the record

Your mark
U.E., the Crown's, by the Dorchester Order of 1789

Your papers
passport and card, with Record Code and Edge Mark

Your money
an account at the Treasury in Grand River dollars

Your business
on the registry, its goods under its own marks

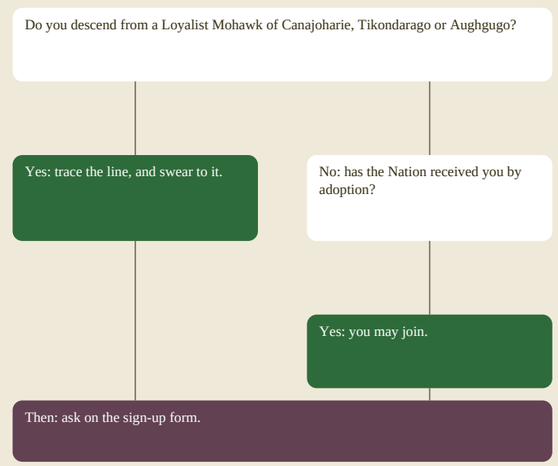

Your land
notices of the Nation's interest, kept beside the province's

Your voice
the Gazette, where the Nation's acts are published

Your privacy
you see who has looked at your record

IS IT FOR YOU?

How to read it: start at the top and follow your answers.

From Book XV; companions: The Line of Honour, The Mark by Either Sex, The Passport and the Credentials.

The passport and card shown are specimens. The Register follows recognised international standards for its records and documents.

MOHAWK NATION
OF GRAND RIVER SECRETARIAT

© Mohawk's Printer for Grand River, 2026, for the Mohawk Nation of Grand River · Grand River Territory, Ohsweken

ISBN to be assigned by Mohawk's Printer, from its next block